ADMISSION REQUIREMENT AND AGREEMENT

You are being conditionally admitted to the Monterey Institute’s Graduate School of International Policy & Management. To be fully admitted into your graduate degree program, you must attend and successfully complete the summer English Preparation for Graduate Studies (EPGS) program.

To comply with the terms of your admittance, you must do all of the following:

1) Successfully complete the summer English Preparation for Graduate Studies program. To complete this program successfully, you must
   a) maintain a minimum attendance requirement of 80% in all of your classes and;
   b) pass all of your classes with a “C” letter grade or higher.
2) Meet with your assigned academic advisor in the Center for Advising & Career Services before the end of your summer program. You will receive more information from your adviser at summer program orientation in July.
3) Successfully place into 300-level or above (graduate level) English for Academic & Professional Purposes (EAPP) courses. All incoming graduate students take written and oral English language placement exams during graduate program orientation. You will receive the results of your exams from your academic adviser during orientation.

Please note: Should you fail to place into 300-level or above English for Academic & Professional Purposes courses, you will be required to take non-degree English language courses at an additional expense until you reach the required proficiency level for your graduate program.

Should you accept the terms of your admission, please read and sign this document. Signed acknowledgment forms should be faxed or emailed to the Intensive English Programs office no later than May 1, 2012.

I have read and understood the above requirements of my admission to the Monterey Institute of International Studies.
