Photography Exhibit Spotlighting Institute Students’ Work in El Salvador to Open with Feb. 26 Reception in Pacific Grove

MIIS Students’ Fourth Year of Development Work in Rural El Salvador Illustrated

Monterey, CA – Images chronicling three weeks of development projects in the Bajo Lempa region of El Salvador by students from the Monterey Institute of International Studies will be featured in an exhibition beginning February 26 at the Pacific Grove Art Center, 568 Lighthouse Avenue in Pacific Grove, California. Team Monterey in El Salvador: a Photographic Exhibition will kick off on Friday the 26th with an open reception from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

The exhibit will display photographs taken by the January 2010 participants of the Institute’s fourth annual Team Monterey Development Practicum in El Salvador. Each year since 2007, students in one of the Institute’s most popular January interim session courses have traveled to El Salvador for three intensive weeks of project work in partnership with a local community development organization. The images illustrate the development projects undertaken as part of this year’s practicum, as well as the communities and people of the Bajo Lempa region.

The exhibit is free and open to the public, and the opening reception on the 26th will feature complimentary snacks and live music. For more information, please contact equipomonterey@gmail.com.
