2012 Global Problems and Solutions Colloquium
Emerging Markets: BRICS and Beyond

Professor Yuke Abe, Doshisha University, Japan
Thailand’s Development and Integrated Production Networks in Asia
February 16

Professor Martín Grandes, Catholic University of Argentina
Why Doesn’t Capital Flow from Rich to Poor Countries? 40 Years of a Paradox
February 23

Ambassador Faizel Ismail, Ambassador of South Africa to the WTO
Developing Countries in Global Trade Governance
March 3

Professor Joshua Aizenman, University of California, Santa Cruz
Managing Financial Integration and Capital Mobility:
Policy Lessons for Emerging Markets and the Struggling Euro
March 8

Professor Philip Martin, University of California, Davis
South-South Migration: Patterns, Impacts, and Challenges
March 15

Professor Pranab Bardhan, University of California, Berkeley
Awakening Giants, Feet of Clay: Assessing the Economic Rise of China and India
March 29

Professor Eduardo Viola, University of Brasilia
The Role of Brazil in the Global Transition to a Low Carbon Economy:
Transformations and Paradoxes
April 5

Professor Soumitra Dutta, INSEAD
New Trends to Accelerate Innovation
April 13

Bill Lewis, Retired Senior Partner of McKinsey & Co. Inc.
The Power of Productivity: A Comparison of Russia and India
April 19

President Sunder Ramaswamy, Monterey Institute of International Studies
India’s Economic Reforms
May 3