2010 Global Problems and Solutions Colloquium
Carbon Markets

Charles T. Haskell, Jr., Vair Companies, Inc.
Carbon Markets and Business Innovations
February 1

Chris Kelly, California Program Director, The Conservation Fund
Using carbon credits to promote conservation
February 22

Marc Stuart, Founder, Director of New Business Development, EcoSecurities
Project Based Reductions as a Climate Policy Tool: Thoughts from a Frustrated Practitioner
March 8

Richard Morse, Research Associate,
Stanford University Program on Energy and Sustainable Development
March 12

Barbara Haya, PhD candidate ERG group, UC Berkeley
Neal Dikeman, Founder and Chairman of the Board, Carbonflow
Panel Discussion: Developing Countries and the Next Clean Development Mechanism

Mark Schapiro, Editorial Director, Center for Investigative Reporting
Betting On Air: Assessing the carbon market and its contribution to reducing greenhouse gas emissions
March 31

Professor Lyuba Zarsky, International Environmental Policy,
Monterey Institute of International Studies
April 5

Professor Naomi Roht-Arriaza, UC Hastings College of the Law
Linking climate, human rights and development: an investment-led approach to climate resilient development paths

Michael Walsh, Executive Vice President, Research, Chicago Climate Exchange
The Role of Exchanges and Standardization in Reducing Emissions at Scale
April 12

Lucia Silva Gao, Assistant Professor of Finance, University of Massachusetts
Environmental Accounting and Disclosure in the Era of Climate Change
April 19

Guest Panel: Carbon offset certifiers:
Clear Sky Climate Solutions, 3Degrees, & TerraPass
Strategies to achieve carbon neutrality at the Monterey Institute (And what type of offsets are best?)
April 26